New Mexico Judges Council NEWSLETTER

HERE COMES THE "JUDGE"!

Message from our President

The NMJC Executive Board has been busy with plans for the NMJC Fall Meeting in Alto. There will be a small standard Flower Show titled "Los Colores de Otono" (The Colors of Fall). Entries will be taken that day, judged in the afternoon and awards presented at the Judges Council dinner. The Dinner Program will be a "Hands On Floral Techniques" workshop. Six floral design techniques will be demonstrated and supplies provided to create the techniques.

There is more information in this newsletter. Hopefully, all NMJC judges will be able to attend. We'll have a silent auction, too. Please let me know if you will be bringing a container for the silent auction.

In the meantime consider attending FSS IV in Albuquerque on Nov. 16-18, 2018. Remember accredited judges may attend for half price ($50). It is a wonderful way for judges to help our Judges Council and to review and learn changes in the 2017 Handbook for Flower Shows. Horticulture will be presented by Judy Newman and Design by Lynn Fronk.

I hope to see all New Mexico Judges at these events.

FLOWER SHOW SCHOOL UPDATE

Flower Show School III in July this year was FABULOUS! If you missed Flower Show School III, in Albuquerque then you missed an incredible school!

David Robson taught us all about Daylilies and Roses and increased our knowledge of Procedure. Mary Huntoon showed us how creative and abstract designs were created. And, our Flower Show School students made their first designs for practice point scoring. Everyone LOVED these two instructors! We were all really disappointed that participation from the judges around the state was way down.

We are hoping to see many of you this November for Flower Show School IV, when Judy Newman will cover African violets and Cactus. Design instructor Lynn Fronk will illustrate plastic organization, penetration of space and dynamic balance using Advanced Design Types. The students will once again be creating designs for practice point scoring But we will need judges for designs for point scoring, master panels and proctoring. Please consider helping us with this last school!

A HUGE thank you to each and every one of those judges as each judge attending, helped with school in some way. We could not have done it without any one of you!

I look forward to your help and support for Flower Show School IV, November 16-18, 2018!
